MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILES:

SUBJECT: Declarations of Trust

1. The Declarations of Trust which a consensus of opinion in the office indicates should be used are:

a. From the individual (in true name) to the United States Government, and

b. From the individual (in true name) to

2. In the first category the instrument could be acknowledged by witnesses or by notarization within CIA.

3. In the second category notarization within CIA can be employed, but witnesses would not be feasible from a security standpoint, if the security of the operation is to be preserved and continued.
